Well,

I am shocked and do view Trump and his administration as nothing but a pack of cowards. Nate Vance is the real U.S. Marine in this nation. He fights against evil. J.D. Vance picks on immigrants that fled extreme violence in their nations of origin which is similar to most American people with the exception of slaves and Native American people.

Whatever the case, Trump's usage of the U.S. Military is a remarkable waste of money and time. Our U.S. Marines should be hard training to fight against real heavily armed adversaries. They should not be involved in beating up communities of immigrants in our nation, which is a waste of precious time that could be spent preparing to fight real adversaries. Also U.S. Marines are that are properly trained, are well fed, have the best access to food, best access to superior water supplies, and are in superior physical and mental condition for fighting real adversaries. These are supposed to be highly motivated individuals that would rather take their fights where it matters the most and that is to the nation states that are harming their people so much so to the extent that these waves of immigration occur in the first place. They would rather fight China's and Russia's abusive tactics in Africa and America's south of Mexico where Russian and Chinese influence works with authoritarian regimes for the sole purpose of harming the American people.

Going after criminal gangs everyone can appreciate, especially when due process is used. American communities do not want violent killers to roam free. But this usage of Federal resources at the moment is not about that concept. It's about abusing the vulnerable with our U.S. Military. And that is totally unacceptable.

My U.S. Marine uncle that fought in Korea and Vietnam would be quite unhappy with this White House.

The L.A. riots of the past had much more justification for bringing out the U.S. Marines. After all the whole community was fighting each other at that moment and large swaths were actually being burned down including the stores around my Sister's store in Hollywood.

If I were a young man I would certainly walk away from my military if asked to assault my American communities like this. Real men would never accept such tasks and challenge their chain of command on such matters.

Anyways,

Those are my concerns at the moment.
