

- III. The Board of Supervisors has received the following items of correspondence which require no official action by the Board at this time: